Equity market risk – a risk that the price of securities as well as income from them may change due to the factors related to extensive changes in the capital market, still not related to a particular issuer. Adverse changes in market conditions can reduce the value of the investments made by the Fund.

Issuer risk – a possibility to suffer loss if the price of a security changes due to the factors related to the issuer of securities or, in case of financial derivatives, to the issuer of the security underlying the respective derivative. The operations of the issuer of the securities or other financial instruments held in the Fund's portfolio can be affected by such factors as issuer's management expertise, economic situation and changes in the industry segment of the issuer, inter alia, the issuer can fail to fulfil its obligations specified in the terms and conditions of the respective issue. Such adverse events can have negative effect on the value of the Fund's investments.

Liquidity risk – a risk that it will not be possible to sell, alienate or deal with the financial instruments held in the Fund's investment portfolio within desired time and extent without substantial losses, as a result of which the respective position will be closed; and a risk that the fulfilment of the requirement of redemption of the Share Certificates of the Investment Fund by the Investment Fund will be suspended or otherwise restricted. It is possible that the Fund might not sell its assets for an acceptable and reasonable price.

Sustainability risk - is an environmental, social or governance event or condition that, if it occurs, could cause an actual or a potential material negative impact on the value of the investment.

The integration of Sustainability factors into the investment process can have a long-term positive effect and at the same time ensure a financial return. Investors should consider that the EU regulatory framework is currently in the implementation phase and there is no common standard or practice for sustainable financing, sustainability impact measurement, sustainable investment, etc. This means that there is still a lack of common labeling for the integration of Sustainability factors, which makes it difficult to compare different strategies and approaches. Consequently, the Company is only liable for what is specified in the Prospectus.

To implement its investment strategy (taking into account the Sustainability factors in the investment process) the Company relies on publicly available information provided by companies and countries, as well as on information provided by third parties regarding Sustainability risk. Therefore, the Company cannot guarantee that such information is always complete and accurate.

Credit risk – a risk of suffering a loss because of deterioration in the financial indicators of the issuer of a financial instrument, default of the issuer or their insolvency.

Counterparty risk – a risk that the Investor can suffer loss if a counterparty defaults on its obligations before the payment of the transaction's final cash flow. In planning the investment policy of the Fund, the Company considers the safety of investments and holding thereof in each particular country and the safety of investing in specific financial instruments and/or term deposits, i.e. it analyses the credit ratings of each country, bank or commercial company. Materialization of counterparty risk may result in partial or full default on liabilities with respect to a particular financial instrument, cause full or partial loss and sustained unavailability of financial instruments, consequently making the execution of orders difficult or impossible and the impossibility of exercising the rights related to financial instruments (e.g. voting rights). The counterparty with whom an agreement on the transaction has been signed may default; the counterparty may also transfer the required funds or financial instruments in insufficient amounts or not transfer them at all notwithstanding the fact that the Fund has fulfilled all its contractual obligations towards the respective counterparty.

Market concentration risk - as up to 100% of the Fund's assets can be invested in a certain region (equity securities of the companies of the Fund's investment region), market concentration risk inherent to the Fund is higher than that of geographically more diversified funds.

Financial risk - financial risk is primarily related to situations when, due to external factors (factors beyond the Company's control), the Investors simultaneously request redemption of their Share Certificates which results in decreased efficiency of the Fund's operations.

IPO (initial public offering) risk – a risk related to potential investments of the Fund in initial public offerings (IPOs). A risk that the IPO stock market value may be volatile due to such factors as lack of historical market, novel trading, limited number of shares available for sale and limited information on the issuer.

Derivative risk – Investors should be aware that investments in derivatives are subject to high risk. Liabilities or claims arising from such transactions may decrease or cease to exist. The risk of loss in certain situations can be undetermined and may exceed the value of the collateral. If the liabilities arising from transactions with derivative financial instruments are covered from loans or if liabilities or claims from such transactions are denominated in foreign currency, the risk of loss may increase.

Derivative transactions may result in insolvency and encumber the Fund's assets without a possibility to determine the amount of possible loss in advance.

Other risks – Force Majeure, incl. natural disasters, strikes, riots, criminal activities, disruptions in communication media and information systems, as well as other risks that cannot be predicted or controlled by the Company.

Key foreign investment risks:

- Political risk – a risk related to the involvement of a country/countries of investment in military conflicts and warfare, as well as to changes in the political environment, e.g. violent overthrow of the government, upheavals or other events affecting the economic or political stability - or further development of this country (region), including the changes in the government's course or its priorities of the respective country (warfare, nationalization, confiscation, introduction of restrictions, sanctions and embargo). This risk is especially typical of the countries which still lack a stable regulatory and legal system, business traditions and culture, among them being certain countries of the Fund's Investment Region. Such factors usually have a major impact on the economic and political stability and financial markets of the respective country and, thus, may have a negative effect on the performance of the Fund.
- Economic risk - a risk related to changes in the economic situation of investment regions, such as economic recession, excessive inflation, banking crisis, etc.
- Currency risk - a risk that Investors may suffer loss from unfavourable fluctuations in the exchange rates. The base currency of the Fund is the euro; however, the Fund's assets may also be placed in financial instruments denominated in other currencies because of which there arise foreign currency fluctuation risks in relation to the Fund's base currency.
- Information availability risk – a risk that there is a lack of true securities market information on the issuer's actual situation or it is inaccessible.

Given that not all the countries of the Fund's Investment Region have common standard for disclosure, there is an increased risk that despite prudent management, the Company may obtain incomplete information and, as a result, making a favourable investment decision is impossible.

- Settlement system risk – failure to make payments or transfers caused by the dysfunction of settlement centres, payment systems or due to shortcomings in the settlement system.
- Legal or regulatory risk - a risk that may inflict additional expenses and/or loss related to amendments to foreign laws, in case of execution of any decisions/acts by the executive bodies, legislator or judicial power. This may result in imposition of seizure or other restrictions on the financial instruments and/or cash forming the Fund's assets (including those held by the Intermediary or sub-intermediary whereby free alienation thereof is prohibited).
- Accounting and double taxation risk – a risk related to the use of different accounting principles in securities accounting and registration systems in different countries which may cause additional burdens on investments, such as higher tax rates set for non-resident investments; thus, the Fund's assets may be burdened more than if investments were made in the local market.
- Foreign legislation application risk – foreign legislation and market practice can be applied to the Fund's assets and financial instruments forming the Fund's assets, their holding and accounting (e.g. when an issuer of financial instruments, depository, holder or counterparty is based in a foreign country), which may envisage for Investor protection, financial instrument holding, transaction execution, etc. conditions that are different from those laid down in Latvia (including, less favourable) where they can be ambiguous, open to divergent interpretations, subject to frequent amendments or restrictions.

2.3 Key Risks Related to Holding of Financial Instruments and Intermediary-related risks

- Custodian risk – the Custodian's inability to operate, erroneous activities or malpractice may adversely affect the Fund and reduce the value of the Fund's assets. The Custodian's inability to operate effectively may result from its insolvency, bankruptcy, negligence or deliberate illegal activity as well as other activities without legal basis.

- Intermediary risk - a risk of loss that may result from an act or omission by the Intermediary, including fraud, negligence and improper performance on the part of the Intermediary or improper execution of orders by the Intermediary or improper accounting for financial instruments and/or funds held by the Intermediary, etc. and because the Intermediary or their involved party uses the Fund's assets, including in transactions with third parties, pledge the said assets, exercises the right of offset or otherwise encumbers with third party rights and liabilities resulting in a full loss of the Fund's assets (or part thereof) or the ability of free disposing thereof can be seriously jeopardised.
- Intermediary insolvency and other special administration procedure risk – a full or partial loss of the Fund's assets, lasting unavailability, impossibility or hindered disposing of them, impossibility to exercise the rights related to financial instruments or inability to access information due to insolvency (bankruptcy) of the Intermediary (or a sub-intermediary) holding the financial instruments or involved in the execution of orders settlements, or another procedure which restricts or suspends their operations.

The Intermediary's insolvency or other similar process as well as holding of financial instruments may be subject to foreign laws and market practice which may essentially differ from those existing in the Republic of Latvia. The rights to financial instruments may be affected by unpredictable decisions made by the legislator, executive bodies or courts of the respective country. The financial instruments included in the Fund's assets may not be recovered; however, under the Intermediary's insolvency proceedings their value may be compensated (or partially compensated) in the cash value of the financial instruments which is determined according to the laws and regulations of the respective country. In that case, the Custodian only distributes proportionately the funds actually received from the Intermediary to the customers concerned, unless otherwise provided by Latvian laws and regulations. In case of the Intermediary's insolvency and other similar processes, there is a risk that neither the financial instruments nor their monetary value is recovered.

- Risk related to the holding of financial instruments registered in foreign country, incl. outside the European Union – in some countries outside the European Union, there may be different or incomplete regulation (legal framework) as regards holding of financial instruments on behalf of other persons and there can be no requirements for segregation of financial instruments owned by customers, including those owned by the Fund, or such a regulation may essentially differ from that of the Republic of Latvia. The Custodian, the Intermediary or a third party engaged by the Intermediary (sub-intermediary) can be regarded as the owner of the financial instruments rather than the Fund and the financial instruments owned by the Fund can be encumbered or alienated as they are considered to be a property of the person in whose name they are registered outside the European Union, notwithstanding that the Custodian has informed the Intermediary of latter holding the financial instruments forming the Fund's assets. Due to the deficiencies in the financial instrument holding system of such countries or because of the conduct of the Intermediary or the issuer, the Fund's income from events and transactions related to financial instruments can be subject to inadequate tax rates. The Custodian Bank may hold financial instruments issued outside the Republic of Latvia with Intermediaries outside the European Union, and the purchase and holding of such financial instruments may create the risk mentioned here, including in the case when the financial instruments are registered in the European Union. The risk referred to in this paragraph also applies to holding financial instruments in Great Britain.
- Issuer's registrar risk – the issuer can assign a registrar for keeping records of its shareholders, incl. ownership. The registrar shall not be considered an agent or an intermediary engaged by the Custodian or its Intermediary; and neither the Custodian nor its Intermediary is liable for acts/ omissions of the registrar or the latter not fulfilling its obligations. Such conduct of the registrar, inter alia, negligence, fraud, improper performance or poor keeping of register or account of the title to financial instruments, insolvency or liquidation can cause losses to the Fund, including, loss or impairment of the Fund's investments.

2.4 Possible Risk Mitigation Measures

The Company manages the Fund in the interests of the Fund's Investors and will make every effort, to the extent possible, to avoid potential risks or mitigate them; however, the Company does not guarantee that it will be possible to completely avoid such risks. To decrease investment risks, the Fund is managed in compliance with the principles of diversification and risk reduction.

When making investments on the Fund's account, the Company obtains enough information on potential or existing investment targets, as well as monitors the financial and economic situation of the persons issuing the financial instruments in which the Fund's assets are or will be invested.

When developing the Fund's investment strategy and determining investment limitations within the Fund's investment policy framework as specified in this Prospectus, the Company analyses the Fund's investments by maturity, geographical spread, industries, currencies, etc. assessing the risk level of each of these factors. The Company strictly observes the standards and restrictions specified in the Prospectus, the Rules and the laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia.

For risk mitigation purposes the Company carries out the following:

- Country assessment according to the ratings assigned by international credit rating agencies;
- Overview of the current political situation of the country;

- Analysis of the current economic situation of the country.

To analyze the impact of investment Sustainability factors, the Company uses the assessments provided by international rating and information agencies, as well as the Company's internal assessments of the level of Sustainability risk inherent in the investment object.

In case of losses that might be incurred due to the Intermediary's negligence or deliberate failure to perform its obligations, the Company shall protect its rights by bringing action against the issuer directly and/or against the Intermediary. The Company and Custodian, within the framework of their competence and in accordance with the effective laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia, will apply all the necessary skills and prudence in selecting, appointing and monitoring their local Intermediaries. Notwithstanding the measures taken by the Company and Custodian, it is not possible to fully avoid the risk related to action, omission or default by the Intermediary.

The investment strategy of the Fund is developed to minimize, as far as possible, the risks referred to in Paragraphs 2.2 and 2.3 hereof; however, the Company does not guarantee that it will be possible to fully avoid these risks in the future

In certain countries and jurisdictions, the distribution of the Share Certificates is restricted by the law. Therefore, the person who has acquired the Share Certificates in accordance with the Prospect is responsible for the compliance with the requirements and/or prohibitions valid in the particular jurisdiction. The Prospectus should not be considered to be a proposal or proposition to purchase the Share Certificates.

On our part, before purchasing the Share Certificates we recommend the Investors to acquaint themselves with the legislative requirements effective in their country of residence and the potential consequences of purchasing the Share Certificates of this Fund (including prevention of money laundering and terrorism financing and proliferation, investment services and non-core services, including assessment of suitability and appropriateness of the Fund for the interests of the Investor) as well as with the requirements of the FATCA (U.S. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act) and the CRS (OECD Standard for Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information), and also with all the effective currency exchange provisions and applicable taxation.

Share Certificates, representing a whole Unit of the Fund, can be divided up to a maximum of four decimal points. The rounding off of the Unit of the Share Certificates is carried out as follows:

- If the fifth decimal is 4 or less – the fourth decimal stays the same;
- If the fifth decimal is 5 or more – the fourth decimal is rounded up by one unit.

The nominal account servicing rules are published on the Company's website www.cblam.lv and the Investor shall acquaint themselves with these rules and agree to them when the respective application is submitted.

10.3 Methods and Frequency of Calculating the Sales Price of Share Certificates and Disclosure of Information

The sales price of Share Certificates consists of the value of the Unit of the Share Certificates of the Fund to be purchased and the entry charge for sale of the Share Certificates referred to Paragraph 7.1 hereof.

The sales price of the Share Certificates is based on the value of the Unit of the Fund which is determined on the day of receipt of the application for the Share Certificate acquisition and published on the next business day.

The sales price of the Share Certificates is variable and is determined on each business day together with the value of the Unit of the Fund.

The Fund's value and the value of the Share Certificates are determined on each business day after the Company receives from the Custodian the statement on the Fund's portfolio which is submitted to the Company on each business day after 17:30.

The information on the Fund's value and the value of the Share Certificates determined on the previous business day is available at the Company's office or may be obtained by calling the Company during its business hours. This information can also be obtained from the Distributor at the address stated in the Prospectus or calling the Distributor; Paragraph 10.1 hereof contains the respective phone numbers. This information is also published on the website of the Company.

10.4 Payment Procedure

The Share Certificates of the Fund are sold at the price determined for the day when the Company received and accepted the application for the acquisition of the Share Certificates of the Fund.

According to Paragraph 10.1 of the Prospectus, the Company or the Distributor calculates, depending on the Share Certificate purchase mode chosen by the Investor, the number of the Share Certificates corresponding to the specified amount of money or the amount of money corresponding to the specified number of the Share Certificates.

Not later than within five business days after the submission of the application for the Share Certificate acquisition to the Company or Distributor, the Investor must transfer the price of the Share Certificates to the Fund's account opened with the Custodian. If, within the prescribed period, the relevant amount of money for purchase of the Share Certificates has not been credited to the Fund's account, the application is void.

If the Custodian holds the cash and financial instruments for the Investor, the submission to the Company or the Distributor of the application for the Share Certificate acquisition shall be deemed as an order to purchase the financial instruments. Based on the application for the Share Certificate acquisition, the Custodian carries out cash and securities settlements as well as makes respective entries in the Investor's accounts. The Custodian debits the amount of money necessary for the purchase of the Share Certificates from the Investor's account and credits it to the Fund's account with the Custodian. After the receipt of the money in the Fund's account opened with the Custodian, the Company issues new Share Certificates and immediately ensures their transfer to the Investor's financial instrument account opened with the Custodian.

If the Investor's cash and financial instrument accounts are held with another Account Holder, the Investor must credit in person the amount of money necessary for the purchase of the Share Certificates of the Fund to the Fund's account with the Custodian. The Investor can choose to receive the transaction confirmation on the exact amount of money which the Investor must credit to the Fund's account with the Custodian either at the office of the Company, or by means of communication stated by the Investor, including, but not only, e-mail and the Internet bank.

The Company issues new Share Certificates only after the Investor has credited the amount of money required for the Share Certificate acquisition to the Fund's account with the Custodian.

The Share Certificates are credited to the Investor's financial instrument account not later than within three business days after the money is credited to the Fund's settlement account.

The payments for the Share Certificates are made in the base currency (EUR) of the Fund.

The payments for the Share Certificates may be made according to other procedures:

- Upon an agreement between the Investor and the Company;
- Upon an agreement between the Investor and the Distributor which does not contradict the Prospectus and the agreements signed between the Investor and the Distributor;
- At the request of the Company, if the amount of money to be invested in the Fund by the Investor exceeds 5% of the Fund's net asset value.

All expenses incurred by the Investor regarding the purchase of the Share Certificates (bank charges for the operations with financial instrument/settlement accounts, etc.) are borne by the Investor.

If the Investor fails to credit to the Fund's account with the Custodian the amount of money necessary for full payment of the Share Certificate value, the Investor must cover all costs as well as losses incurred by the Company and Fund due to failing to execute the application for the Share Certificate acquisition.

10.5. Payment Procedure by Using Nominal Accounts

When purchasing Share Certificates according to the procedure specified in Paragraph 10.2 hereof without opening the financial instrument account with Account Holder, the Investor must credit in person to the Fund's account with the Custodian. The Company sends the transaction confirmation to the Investor by electronic means of communication as previously agreed by them

The Company issues new Share Certificates only after the Investor has credited the amount of money necessary for purchasing the Share Certificates to the Fund's account with the Custodian or according to any other pre-agreed procedure between the Company and Investor.

The Share Certificates are transferred to the Investor's nominal account opened by the Company not later than within three business days after receiving the money in the Fund's account with the Custodian.

The Investor is entitled to demand at any time that the Share Certificates they own and hold in the nominal account of the Company are registered in the financial instrument account in the name of the Investor. In such case, the Investor must open a financial instrument account with the Custodian or another Account Holder and give an order to transfer to this account all the Share Certificates they own. The Company has the right to refuse the Investor such reregistration if the use of the nominal accounts is binding by some specific compulsory jurisdiction or required due to legal, regulatory or practically unavoidable reasons.

11. REDEMPTION AND REPURCHASE OF SHARE CERTIFICATES

11.1 Application Procedure for Redemption of Share Certificates

The Company redeems the Share Certificates at the Investor request.

The Company redeems the Share Certificates in the order in which the applications for redemption are submitted and registered.

To request redemption of the Share Certificates, the Investor must submit to the Company, Distributor or Account Holder, with which a financial instrument account has been opened for the Investor, the application for redemption of the Share Certificates of the Fund.

If the Investor holds the Share Certificates in the nominal account with the Company, the application for redemption of the Share Certificates of the investment fund must be submitted to the Company.

The Investor may submit the application for redemption of the Share Certificates to the Company or Distributors at the addresses referred to in Paragraph 10.1 hereof during their business hours.

If the Company has received and accepted the application until 17:30 Latvian time (cut-off time), it must be executed for the redemption price of the Share Certificates stated for the day of the receipt of the application which is determined after 17:30.

If the Company has received and accepted the application after the cut-off time, such an application, at the Company's discretion, may be considered as submitted on the next business day.

In the application for redemption of the Share Certificates, the Investor indicates at their discretion the preferred redemption mode: a fixed number of the Share Certificates to be redeemed or a specific amount of money for redemption of the Share Certificates.

The Company does not bear any responsibility for the Investor's losses caused by incorrect or incomplete application.

The Company is obliged to execute only those applications which provide all the information required. The Investor is responsible for the accuracy and completeness of the stated information.

If an Investor applies for redemption of their Share Certificates through an Account Holder who acts in their own name but on behalf of the Investor, but who is not a Distributor within the meaning of this Prospectus, the Account Holder must ensure and is responsible for identifying the Investor according to their client identification procedures.

11.2 Methods and Frequency of Calculating the Redemption Price of Share Certificates

The redemption price of the Share Certificate is equal to the value of the Unit of the Share Certificates of the Fund determined for the day when the Company has received and accepted the application for redemption of the Share Certificates.

No charge is withheld for redemption of the Share Certificates; however, the Investor must bear transaction-related charges and costs, including transaction costs.

The redemption price of the Share Certificates is variable and established on a daily basis together with the value of the Unit of the Fund.

The redemption price for Share Certificates is paid in the base currency of the Fund.

Information on the Fund's value and the value of the unit is disclosed as stated in Paragraph 10.3 hereof.

11.3 Payment procedure

The Share Certificates are redeemed at the price determined for the day when the Company has received and accepted the application for redemption of the Share Certificates.

According to Paragraph 11.1 hereof, the Company calculates, depending on the redemption mode chosen by the Investor, the amount of money corresponding to the number of the Share Certificates specified in the Investor's application or the number of the Share Certificates corresponding to the specified amount of money.

Not later than within five business days after the submission of the application for redemption of the Share Certificates to the Company or Distributor, the Investor transfers the redeemed Share Certificates to the Fund's issue account opened with the Custodian. If within the set period the number of the redeemed Share Certificates has not been transferred to the Fund's issue account, the application is void.

If the Custodian holds the cash and financial instrument accounts for the Investor, an application submitted for redemption of the Share Certificates to the Company or Distributor shall be deemed as an order to sell the financial instrument. Upon this order, the Custodian carries out cash and securities settlements as well as makes respective entries in the Investor's accounts. The Custodian transfers the redeemed Share Certificates from the Investor's financial instruments account to the Fund's account opened with the CSD. After receiving the Share Certificates in the Fund's issue account with the CSD, the Company immediately redeems them and within six business days the Company transfers to the Investor's cash account the relevant amount of money in the base currency of the Fund which corresponds to the number of the redeemed Share Certificates.

If the Investor's settlement and financial instrument accounts are held with another Account Holder, the Investor shall in person ensure transferring the number of the redeemed Share Certificates to the Sub Fund's issue account with the CSD. If the Investor has stated in the application the amount of money to be received for the redeemable Share Certificates, then the Investor can receive the transaction confirmation on the exact number of redeemable Share Certificates which the Investor must transfer to the Fund's issue account with the CSD and this can be received at their discretion either at the office of the Company or through means of communication stated by the Investor, including, but not only, e-mail and Internet bank. After receiving the Share Certificates in the Fund's issue account with the CSD, the Company immediately redeems them and not later than within six business days transfers to the Investor's cash account the relevant amount of money in the base currency of the Sub-account which corresponds to the number of the redeemed Share Certificates.

If the Share Certificates are held in the nominal account with the Company, then the Company immediately redeems the respective Share Certificates and not later than within six business days transfers to the Investor's settlement account the relevant amount of money in the base currency of the Fund which corresponds to the number of the Share Certificates redeemed.

All expenses incurred by the Investor with regard to the redemption of the Share Certificates (bank charges for operations with the financial instrument/cash settlement accounts, transaction fees, etc.) are borne by the Investor.

If the Investor or several Investors within 3 business days submit applications for redemption of the Share Certificates which taken together exceed 10% of the Fund's net asset value and which execution may substantially affect the interests of other Investors, the redemption settlement period may be extended to ten business days.

After redemption of the Share Certificates the Investor loses all their rights derived from owning the Share Certificates, except claims to the extent of the redemption price until they are settled in full.

11.4 Secondary Market of Share Certificates

The Share Certificates of the Fund are transferable securities, and Investors can alienate them without limitations according to the applicable laws and regulations. The Company has no right to determine the price of the Share Certificates on the secondary market, and the Company is not responsible for the price fluctuations of the Share Certificates on the secondary market.

11.5 Rules and Procedure for Repurchase of Share Certificates

If significantly important information for determining the value of the Share Certificates presented in the Prospectus and accompanying documents is incorrect or incomplete due to the Company's fault, the Investor is entitled to demand that the Company repurchases their Share Certificates and reimburses them for all losses incurred.

Such a claim must be filed within 6 months from the date when the Investor finds out that such information is incorrect or incomplete, but in any case, not later than three years from the date of purchase of the Share Certificate.

The Investor can submit the application for repurchase of the Share Certificates to the Company in writing together with documents certifying the fact that the Investor has suffered loss due to the Company's fault as in the Prospectus and the accompanying documents the Company has presented incorrect or incomplete data of significant importance for determining the value of the Share Certificates.

The Company may temporarily suspend repurchase of the Share Certificates of the Fund in exceptional cases if the repurchase is impossible due to force majeure circumstances which are beyond the control of the Company and the Fund. Repurchase of the Share Certificates can be suspended if the Supervisory authority exercises its rights to restrict the Company's rights to alienate the Fund's assets. The Share Certificates of the Fund may not be repurchased in case the Fund is under liquidation; in the event of liquidation, the claims of the creditors and Investors are satisfied according to the procedure laid down in the laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia.

11.6 Conditions for Suspension of Redemption and Repurchase of the Share Certificates

In case of extraordinary financial market conditions (temporary shutdown of stock exchanges, banks, brokerages or any other reason preventing transactions in financial instruments) or other force majeure events or upon the merger or reorganisation of the Fund, the Company may temporarily suspend trading of the Share Certificates of the Fund. The Company will immediately inform every Investor directly or publish a respective announcement on the website of the Distributor at www.cblam.lv.

Redemption and repurchase of the Share Certificates may be suspended if the Supervisory authority exercises its right to restrict the rights of the Company to manage the Fund's bank accounts, and in the event of liquidation of the Fund.

Redemption and repurchase of the Share Certificates is prohibited after the start of liquidation of the Fund.

If the Fund is liquidated, the claims of the Fund's creditors and Investors are satisfied according to the procedure laid down in the laws and regulations.

12. PRINCIPLES AND RULES FOR THE FUND VALUATION

The Fund's value (also referred to as the Fund's net asset value) is the value of the assets less the value of the liabilities.

12.1 Valuation of the Fund's assets

The accounting records of the Fund are kept according to the Law, the Regulations issued by the Supervisory authority as well as other laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia.

For valuation of the items of financial statements, International Accounting Standards issued by the International Accounting Standards Board are applied.

The Company ensures that accounting records of the Fund are maintained in the base currency of the Fund (EUR). Transactions in foreign currencies are translated in the base currency of the Fund at the currency exchange rate published by the European Central Bank or according to the information provided by the Custodian, which is based on the exchange rate of the respective currency published by the news and information agencies such as Bloomberg, Reuters or similar information sources.

The Fund's assets are valued according to the following accounting principles:

- 1) Going concern principle;
- 2) The same asset valuation principles as used in the previous reporting year;
- 3) Prudence principle:
 - The financial statements of the Fund comprise only the profit generated to the date of the balance sheet,
 - All possible costs are considered regardless of the time of their occurrence (i.e. those related to the reporting period and to the previous reporting periods);

- 4) Income and expense incurred during the reporting year are taken into consideration irrespective of the payment date or the invoice issuance date;
- 5) All items having a material impact on the evaluation or decision making by the users of the Fund's financial statements are disclosed;
- 6) Assets and liabilities items have been valued separately;
- 7) All transactions are recorded and disclosed according to their economic content and nature rather than their legal form.

In exceptional cases deviations from the above accounting principles are allowed. Any such case shall be explained in the notes to the financial statements, stating its impact on the assets and liabilities, financial position and financial results of the Fund.

According to the requirements specified in the Prospectus and the laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia, the assets of the CBL European Leaders Equity Fund may only consist of financial assets.

- financial assets at fair value through profit or loss. These are financial assets purchased or acquired mainly with the objective of generating a profit from short-term price fluctuations;
- financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income. These are financial assets with fixed or determinable payments and fixed maturity that an entity has positive intent and ability to hold to maturity.

The Company classifies the financial assets at the time of their acquisition and reviews the asset classification on a regular basis (at the end of each month).

The valuation of the Fund's assets is carried out on a prudent basis.

Financial assets are initially recognized in financial statements at cost which is the fair value of consideration given to acquire the asset. The cost includes the transaction costs directly related to the acquired financial asset.

The Company recognises or derecognises the purchase or sale of financial assets using the settlement date accounting.

12.1.1 Valuation of Debt Securities

Debt securities at fair value through profit or loss

The fair value of debt securities held for trading purposes that are listed on stock exchanges or traded on other regulated markets is based on the last published market prices known to the Custodian.

If the security income is paid out in the form of coupon payment and the stock exchange price does not include the accrued coupon portion, it is added to the amount that corresponds to the period from the starting date of coupon calculation to the date of calculation of the Fund's value.

Debt securities at fair value through other comprehensive income

Debt securities with fixed or determinable payments and a fixed maturity which are intended to and can be held until maturity as well as debt securities not publicly traded on stock exchanges or on other regulated markets are valued at amortized cost, which is calculated using the effective interest rate method, i.e. the securities are stated at cost plus amortized discount or premium (Agio, Disagio). Income is recognized and the carrying amount is reduced by using the rate that precisely discounts the future cash flow (until the financial asset maturity or the repricing date) to the financial asset present value.

If the security is paid out in the form of coupon, the accrued interest or the coupon portion is added to the extent corresponding to the period from the starting date of such coupon calculation until the date of calculation of the Fund's value.

12.1.2 Valuation of Equity Securities

The value of equity securities listed on the stock exchanges or traded on other regulated markets is based on the last published market prices known to the Custodian.

Equity securities not listed on stock exchanges or traded on other regulated markets are valued at acquisition cost. Following the prudence principle, such assets are valued at the lowest price if such is known to the Custodian through the transactions carried out on the market. Information on market transactions can be obtained from official and public information sources (e.g. newspapers, news agencies).

12.1.3 Valuation of Share Certificates of Investment Funds

The value of the Share Certificates of investment funds or similar or equivalent collective investment undertakings is based on the last available redemption price of the Share Certificates on the day of calculation of the Fund's value.

12.1.4 12.1.5 Valuation of term deposits

All term deposits are classified as financial assets held to maturity and designated at fair value through other comprehensive income by adding the accrued interest (which is calculated over the period from the last date of interest payment to the date of calculation of the Fund's value) to the principal amount of such term deposit.

12.1.5 Valuation of derivatives

Derivatives listed on stock exchanges or traded on other regulated markets are valued at a price for which the instrument can be sold (the last purchase price at the market close on the day of calculation of the Fund's value).

Derivatives not publicly traded on stock exchanges or on other regulated markets are valued at their redemption price or at compensatory transaction price confirmed in writing by the transaction partner on the day of calculation of the Fund's value or at a price that is calculated on the basis of the market price of the underlying asset. A compensatory transaction is a transaction that liquidates a derivative.

Futures are valued at the market bid price on the respective exchange or regulated market where they have been concluded as of the moment of the stock exchange closing on the date of calculation of the Fund's value.

Currency forwards are valued at fair value applying the position-closing cost method. The fair value of a currency forward is the difference between the value of the currency purchased and the value of the currency sold, revaluated at the compensatory forward rate at the date of calculation of the Fund's value. If the rate confirmed by counterparty is not available, a transaction shall be valued at a price that is calculated on the basis of the market price of the underlying asset, i.e. applying the current exchange rate and market interest rates.

A currency SWAP is an instrument that consists of two parts – a spot and a currency forward transaction. Therefore, each part of the transaction is valued separately by applying the methods used for the valuation of the respective instrument.

12.1.6 Translation of Assets in Foreign Currencies

Assets and liabilities in currencies other than the base currency of the Fund are translated into the latter at the exchange rate published by the European Central Bank or according to the information published by the news and information agencies such as Bloomberg, Reuters or similar information sources at the calculation date of the Fund's value.

12.2 Valuation of Liabilities

The value of liabilities equals the sum of all payments charged to and attributable to the Fund, including fees payable from the Fund's assets to the Company, Custodian, Auditor of the Fund and third parties, and the liabilities arising from loans and other liabilities of the Fund.

Liabilities in foreign currencies other than the base currency of the Fund are translated into the base currency of the Fund according to the information provided by the Custodian, which is based on the exchange rate of the respective currency published by the news and information agencies such as Bloomberg, Reuters or similar information sources for the calculation date of the Fund's value.

12.3 Income and expense accounting

Income and expenses attributable to the reporting period are disclosed in the Fund's statement of profit or loss of the regardless of the date of receipt or payment thereof. The accrued income is only included in the Fund's statement of profit or loss if there is no doubt regarding its receipt.

13. DISTRIBUTION OF THE FUND'S INCOME

The Investor participates in the distribution of the income derived from transactions with the Fund's assets in proportion to the value of the Share Certificates owned.

The income or loss of the Investor are reflected in the increase or decrease in the value of the Share Certificates.

The Investor can only receive their income from the investments in the Fund in cash by requesting the Company to redeem the Share Certificates owned or by selling them on the secondary market.

Rights

AS Citadele banka is appointed the Fund Custodian in accordance with the Custody Agreement signed with the Company for an indefinite duration which can be terminated according to the circumstances and procedure specified in the Agreement.

The Custodian holds the Fund's assets, monitors the Fund's asset transactions carried out by the Company as well as performs other duties specified in the Law and Custody Agreement.

The Custodian ensures that: (a) the emission, sale, redemption, repurchasing and cancellation of the Share Certificates are carried out in accordance with the Law, Prospectus and Fund Rules; (b) the value of the Share Certificates is calculated in accordance with the Law, the Supervisory authority's regulations, Prospectus and Fund Rules; (c) the Fund's income is used in accordance with the Law, the Supervisory authority's regulations, Prospectus and Fund Rules; (d) the fee for the Fund's asset transactions is paid on a timely basis.

The Custodian executes the orders of the Company, unless they are contrary to the Law, the Regulations of the Supervisory authority, Prospectus, Fund Rules and Custody Agreement and their performance is possible.

The Custodian in its own name instigates legal actions for the Investors against the Company, if the circumstances require it. This, however, is without prejudice to the rights of the Investors to bring legal actions in their own name. The Custodian is entitled to bring a counterclaim if recovery proceedings are commenced against the Fund's assets in connection with the Custodian's obligations.

In fulfilling the obligations stipulated in the Law, the Custodian operates honestly and fairly in a professional manner, independently of the Company, and in the interests of the Investors.

The Custodian has the right to enter into agreements with the Intermediaries to secure the holding of the Fund's assets and settling of transactions with the Fund's assets as well as assigning the performance of other obligations. The Custodian selects such Intermediaries and continues to monitor their activities over the period of receiving the services in accordance with the provisions of the laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia and Custody agreement.

At the approval date of amendments to the Prospectus, the Custodian may hold the Fund's assets with the following Intermediaries:

- Clearstream Banking S.A.,
- Nasdaq CSD SE,
- Saxo Bank A/S,
- State Street Fund Services Ireland,
- Raiffeisen Bank International AG,
- Schroder Investment Management (Luxembourg) S.A.
- Allfunds Bank, S.A.U. Luxembourg branch.

An updated list of the Custodian's Intermediaries holding the Fund's assets on behalf of the Custodian as well as other related information are available upon request at the Custodian's office.

In the circumstances specified in the Law when foreign legislation provides for holding particular financial instruments only with an Intermediary registered in the respective foreign country, the Custodian, following the procedure laid down in the Law, is permitted to hold the financial instruments included in the Fund's assets with such a foreign Intermediary to which regulatory requirements similar to the supervision requirements established in the Republic of Latvia and their monitoring are not applicable and which is not subject to annual statutory audits carried out by certified auditors which prescribe receipt of an opinion on the existence of the financial instruments. In this case, the information regarding the holding of financial instruments with an Intermediary registered in a foreign country, the justification for such a holding and the related risks is published on the website: <https://www.cblam.lv/en/funds/> and is also available at the request of the Investor at the Custodian's office. The Custodian is entitled to hold the financial instruments included in the Fund's assets with such a foreign Intermediary until the time when an Intermediary complying with the requirements laid down in the Law is registered in the respective foreign country.

The holding of financial instruments with a foreign Intermediary is subject to foreign legislation application risk and intermediary risk as well as a risk inherent in the holding of financial instruments registered in a foreign country, incl. outside the EU, as described in the chapter "RISK PROFILE OF THE FUND AND RISKS RELATED TO THE INVESTMENTS" hereof.

When ensuring the holding of the Fund's assets as well as when performing the other obligations of the Custodian, conflicts of interest may arise. The Custodian, based on the laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia and the procedures for preventing conflicts of interests, analyses potential conflicts of interest, which may arise in providing the Custodian's services to the Fund.

The Custodian and Company are members of a single consolidated group; therefore, conflicts of interest between the Fund and Custody may occur. Recognising the business profile of the Custodian as Citadele banka, it can also provide other services to the Company and/or Fund. Accordingly, conflicts of interest may arise between the structural units of AS Citadele banka which provide various services. The Custodian also provides custody services to other customers; accordingly, conflicts of interests may arise between the Fund and other customers of the Custodian. Conflicts of interest may also arise in relation to assigning the Custodian's obligations to third parties, e.g., when obligations are transferred to another party belonging to the same group as the Custodian.

The Custodian, in accordance with the laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia, has developed internal procedures for proper identification, management and monitoring of potential conflicts of interest and has functionally and hierarchically separated the obligations of the Custodian from other obligations which lead to potential conflicts of interest. Moreover, the management structures of the Custodian and Company have been designed to enable the Company and Custodian to operate independently and perform their obligations in the best interests of the Investors and Fund.

Updated information on potential conflicts of interest in relation to the performance of the Custodian's obligations is available at the request of the Investors at the Custodian's office.

Every Investor must constantly follow and carefully read the information published in this chapter "CUSTODIAN" on the specified website.

Liability

The Custodian is fully responsible and liable for any damage caused to the Fund, Investors and Company where the Custodian has breached the Law or the Custody Agreement intentionally or negligently performed its duties. In the cases and in accordance with the procedures specified in the applicable laws and regulations, the Custodian is liable to the Fund and Investors for the loss of financial instruments held with the Custodian Bank or a third party.

Where the Custodian has approved a transaction that failed to comply with the Law and the provisions of the relevant laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia or in the event of breaches of those provisions, the Custodian and Company are jointly liable for the damage caused to the Fund.

The Custodian is not liable for any loss caused to the Fund and/or the Company because of the insolvency of the Intermediary, inter alia, in connection with the application of insolvency law of the respective country as well as laws and regulations restricting circulation of financial instruments, payment operations, securities and funds transfer operations and currency conversion as well as the introduction of special arrangements or restrictions. Such losses are attributable to the Fund.

The transfer of the Custodian's obligations to third parties does not relieve the Custodian of the liability provided in the laws and regulations of the Republic of Latvia and the Custody Agreement.

The fee payable to the Custodian is included in the Fund's asset value calculation on every business day. In calculating the fee payable to the Custodian for the Fund management on the current day, the Company assumes that the reporting year of the Fund consists of 365 days:
